

Talent at Mean Mahn.

At the break-up of the Mean Mahn State School, there was a social and entertainment given by the past and present scholars. The musical portion of the programme included songs sung by the children, recitation by Mollie O'Donnell; song by Miss E. Butterworth; recitation, Vera Lavis; dialogue "The Fortune Teller", Ivy Treloar and Evelyn Wallis, and song by the Misses F. and D. Lavis.

A very nice play given by the older girls, entitled "Cinderella", which surprised everyone present, followed, and was well received. The scenery arrangements were unique, considering the hall space allotted them, all being under the leadership of the teacher, Miss G. Stade. Miss Flo. Lavis was the Cinderella, whilst Miss K. Stude made an excellent Prince. Misses E. Butterworth and Dorothy Lavis acted in the role of Cinderella's sisters, and Miss F. O'Donnell filled the part of Fairy Godmother. Much credit is due to the above for the enjoyable evening spent amongst the children, who were all presented with a bag of fruit and sweets, after which the proceedings terminated with a dance.
